A Young Girl Desires to Stay Where She is Well Treated and Declines a New Guardian.

A New Trophy.

The Crescent Athletic Club is certainly "playing in great luck," particularly in the way of trophies of various kinds.

The nucleus for the collection was formed May 8th last, when the club won the magnificent $75 onyx clock, the attendance prize for wheelmen at the Fabiola fete in Oakland. Then came Wilkins' "blue ribbon" and $7 in coin, first prize for appearance at the Rose Carnival at Santa Rosa early in May, followed by the return of the boys from Santa Cruz bringing with them the two silken banners captured at the Water Carnival.

Since then the boys have been resting on their laurels and, unlike Alexander, not "seeking more worlds to conquer," but hunting for an appropriate place to put their already conquered spheres in. This vexed problem has been deepened by the latest addition to the collection, namely—"Epictetus Euphratus Elestus Elias, Cowfucius Pedronicus Beers, or Pete, for short," the rag-tag and bob-tailed fighting rooster, which has accompanied Hughes and Beers, the "Tramp Students" from Los Angeles to Berkeley.

The club, while at Santa Cruz, extended the freedom of "Camp Gala" to the students and it appears that the cooking, the pies and the other delicacies with which the camp abounded, touched the students' hearts so deeply that they decided to present their most valued possession, "Pete," to the club.

This impressive ceremony took place yesterday at high noon at the Victor Cyclery on Center street. Fred Wilkins and Oscar Putzker acted as Receiver-Generals for the club and bore their great honors modestly, yet with quiet dignity. Wilkins, in a brief but eloquent speech, accepted the rooster on behalf of the Crescent Athletic Club, and solemnly swore to protect it with his life.

After the ceremonies had been completed a council of war was held at Miklesen & Berry's and it was unanimously agreed that E. E. C. P. Beers should always accompany Captain Putzker on every run, parade or festivity of any kind in which the club takes part, his regal throne being the Captain's shoulder.

Each and all join with High Priest Wilkins in a devout belief, that Pete will surely prove the club's mascot and enable them to win everything in sight.

A temporary realm has been provided for his "Royal Kingship Pete" at the Victor Cyclery, where all who so desire may call and pay the homage due him.

She was Contented.

A writ of habeas corpus was sued out yesterday by Mrs. A. E. Cavanaugh who alleged that Katie Waters, a minor, but of the age of consent, that is 15 years and past, has been restrained of her liberty in the house of Jane Doe Healey near San Leandro. Mrs. Healey and husband were in court Monday morning with the girl. They were represented by ex-Judge Nye. Attorney J. H. Long stated that the child had been taken from St. Joseph's orphan asylum by Mrs. Cavanaugh, who had placed her with the Healeys as a nurse girl. She had since learned that the child had been beaten and abused.

The return showed that the girl was with the Healeys by her own consent and desired to say where she is. The child said that she was not ill used. The child having no guardian was at liberty to stay where she chose. She took the stand and testified that she had no cause of complaint and did not care to go to Mrs. Cavanaugh. The attorney for the petitioner then consented to a dismissal of the writ.

Politics Drowned Him.

Harry W. Brydges, a conductor for the Southern Pacific Company, filed his petition in insolvency yesterday with the County Clerk. The story behind it was one of blasted political hopes and a faded fortune, which was dissolved in a hunt for honors from a Republican convention last fall.

Brydges tried to exchange the monotony of railroad travel for a berth in a county office. He sought the Republican nomination for Recorder, but was left far behind. All he has left is a lot of household furniture worth $135, and mortgaged at that.

Brydges liabilities amount to $1850. His debts run all the way from a $5 advertising bill to a note of $277, held by the California Nursery Company. Among his numerous creditors are a dozen county newspapers. The remainder of his bills are mainly among various merchants. He owes Ah Hing $100 and Ah Ling $169 for labor.

A Beautiful Wedding.

The daughter of Judge and Mrs. Bergen was married last night in a style not often seen in Berkeley. The house of the parents was magnificently decorated with floral tributes. Each room was in a different color. The parlor contained the ever sacred flower bell, under which the two were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by the Rev. Ketchum.

After the ceremony, was performed the bride and groom, accompanied by the parents and invited guests, repaired to the garden, where an immense tent had been erected for the wedding supper, to which all sat down and enjoyed the beautiful occasion until the time arrived for the happy couple to take their departure, which was done under a large shower of rice and wishes for future happiness.

Late Eastern advices indicate that the Democratic party is pretty well split in two on the gold and silver question.

Did You See It?

It is not often that a representative of the GAZETTE has an opportunity to while away his time in the out-door air of Berkeley during the evening. There is always some kind of an entertainment that he must attend for the purpose of letting the world know the following day what has been going on in all these night gatherings.

Last evening, however, he got a special let off and indulged himself in a walk about the most beautiful parts of town, looking at the many improvements going on in our midst, as well as observing the many beautiful houses and gardens in the eastern portion of the town. Many a page could be filled with interesting matter which came before his vision as he passed from one beautiful spot to come quickly before another equally as handsome.

It was quite early in the evening and about the time twilight had just let her curtain fall and pinned it with a star when a light vaporous element was seen descending from the tops of the high hills back of Berkeley which afford such a splendid view of the country roundabout to the visitors here on Sundays and holidays. It was at this time when the eyes of the reporter were looking upward that he gazed upon one of the most beautiful heavenly sights that ever greeted his fascinating orbs.

The new moon, although quite young, was seen in its perfectly crescent shape taking its regular course in the heavenly firmament.

As the light fog got lower and lower it was noticed that the ethereal matter was enveloping it and its color was changed from a rich golden to that of shining silver. Whether this was an indication that in the future silver was to displace gold in the eyes of the world we will allow others to conjecture.

This change, beautiful as it was soon became still grander when the evening star had come into such a position that its location was in the center of the crescent and shone like an immense diamond. It made the writer's soul tremble with poetic thought. He was motionless for several minutes and stood gazing upon the wonderful heavenly phenomenon.

This beautiful silver crescent as it shone through the vapor with its diamond center presented a view that may never occur again in thousands of years.

How great, how glorious and how wonderful are all of nature's products on earth and how little can we appreciate them. Then make a comparison with those of the heavenly bodies and see how little and insignificant one becomes on beholding them.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Walter McIntire and Andy Frick upon the charge of disturbing the peace, growing out of the melee which occurred in East Berkeley night before last. It is said that McIntire went across the bay yesterday and is being detained there on account of some difficulty he got into while at San Francisco.

It is very probable that the G. A. R. Post of Berkeley and the Sons of Veterans will take part in the Oakland parade on the Fourth of July.

A special engine hauling the pay car passed through West Berkeley this morning for points on the road between here and Sacramento.

The great Peralta claim of 12,000,000 acres of land in Arizona has been declared fraudulent and James A. Reavis, the claimant, has been put under arrest.

The citizens of Berkeley should read the different ordinances that are being published each day in the GAZETTE, as it is of great importance that the people should know what will be expected of them in sanitary and building matters, as well as upon other important matters.

A regular old time Democratic Convention was convened at Louisville, Ky., yesterday. There were over 800 delegates present. Judge William N. Bricker was elected temporary chairman. On account of the noise and confusion no business could be done and at 1:30 o'clock the convention adjourned. It will meet again today.

LOOKS QUEER.

The Advocate Collects Money From

The Town but Delivers No Work

To the Officers Whom it was Ordered for

An Italian Seeking Three Children and $200—The Bergen Wedding Last Night.

Looks Queer.

Some four weeks ago the different printers in town were asked to estimate upon the printing of 10,000 tax receipts and a copy was furnished them. Only half a day was given, but nevertheless the GAZETTE and another paper put in bids. The same were not opened, however, and when the editor of the GAZETTE asked the reason why he was informed by President Rickard that he had already given the work to the Advocate. A little further investigation divulged the fact that President Rickard had awarded the contract to the Advocate for $60. The bid (which was unopened) of the GAZETTE was $56.

As the President of the Board had been given the power to purchase necessary supplies, we said nothing about it, although we think that printing does not come under the head of purchasing supplies, and the chances are that it would never have been mentioned were it not for the fact that at the last meeting of the Board a bill was presented for the $60, for printing the receipts and was ordered paid by the Finance Committee and the warrant for the same was drawn. There would be no trouble as far as this was concerned if it were not for the fact that the town was paying for something that it had not then nor has yet received.

Neither the Finance Committee nor the Board of Trustees are to be blamed for this as the bill was marked as correct although the Tax Collector, Mr. Squires, says that he never O K'd the bill. We know that the books have not yet been delivered, as the work was done by J. B. McIntyre of San Francisco, whom the Advocate objects to as a bondsman for the GAZETTE, and they are still there awaiting the payment of the bill by the Advocate to take them out.

The GAZETTE asks only for fair play and a chance to compete for the job printing of the town. It will, however, see that the fast decaying Advocate, delivers the goods before it gets its pay.

We have reason to believe also that the receipts are not according to what they should be, as we have been informed that they are the same size as last year, when the contract called for their being one inch longer and one each wider. The Oakland Enquirer is asked to copy this item and give it as much publicity as it did the item from the Advocate which stated that the GAZETTE could not get bondsmen in Berkeley.

He Loses De Mun.

A very excitable gentleman from Italy accosted a GAZETTE reporter in West Berkeley this morning and asked where he could find the Chief of Police. The reporter scenting an item entitled what the trouble was, and the gentleman from the land of pretty women and sunny skies stated that his name was K. Frabiche and that he has reason to believe that a young man 19 years of age, who had been residing at his home on the corner of Green and Dupont streets San Francisco, was in Berkeley. He stated that he wanted to find him very much, as he had left, taking his Frabiche's, two daughters aged 10 and 3 years and his son aged 5 years with him, and also $200 in money. He said he wanted the officers to know that the young man is named Ganneles Tarroni and that he is a murderer, that he killed a man in Italy and then fled to California where he took up his abode with Frabiche, having known Frabiche's wife in Italy. Frabiche was not in a very good humor, and it would not have fared well with Tarroni had he been found this morning. He learned later that the man he was looking for had been in Berkeley, but had left for Vallejo, and he turned his footsteps in that direction.

It is the general belief of those who heard Frabiche tell his story, that when he returns to his home in San Francisco he will find that he is out a wife also, and he was so informed, when he answered, I no cara for de wifa, nor de girila or de boy. Sacre, I wanta de mun.

People in Berkeley should not forget the dance and entertainment that is to be given at Landregh's Hall on July 6th for the benefit of Louis Gill, who was injured by a railroad train at Stege station, over two months ago. The young man, who is well known here, has been in the hospital ever since the accident, and he is very much in need of assistance. He gave freely when he was well and had it and the bread cast upon the waters and then should now be returned.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26 1895

WHO IS TO BLAME.

On Monday evening several young men while under the influence of liquor disturbed the peace and dignity of Center street below Shattuck avenue. For this the offenders should undoubtedly be arrested and punished. That anything so disgraceful occurred as appeared in the Advocate we doubt, although that kind of a report was circulated about town yesterday. It was too filthy, however, to appear in any paper except the Advocate which editorially goes after the peace officers of the town. It states that the Deputy Marshal Kerns was called but that he was sleeping so soundly that he could not be awakened and that the beastly conduct was carried on until morning. Now this part of the story is absolutely false for as soon as Deputy Marshal Kerns was called he got right up, but the party who had knocked at his door had gone by the time Mr. Kerns had got it opened. He then dressed himself and went down town, but when he got there everything was quiet. He remained upon the streets afterwards for more than an hour or so but he heard no noise such as the Advocate states was kept up all night, neither did anyone appear to make a complaint to him.

The Advocate concludes its editorial by stating that "if the proper officers do not take the matter up and bring the offenders to justice, the people of Berkeley should rise in their might and demand their resignation." In this connection we would state that Marshal Lloyd yesterday visited the persons who live in the neighborhood of the alleged night of debauchery, but he could not find any of them willing to state what occurred, or could he induce any of them to swear to a complaint.

There is an opportunity however, for the miscreants to be arrested, as we have been informed that a member of the Advocate staff was present at the time the "racket" occurred, and the highly incensed editor of that sheet might be able to have that member of the staff swear to a complaint, before the Advocate rises in its might and demands the resignation of Marshal Lloyd and his deputies.

BUSINESS IMPROVING.

There is certainly an advance all along the line in business if anything can be judged from our eastern exchanges. The first branch of industry to feel an improvement was that of iron and steel. The building of ships of these metals has been commenced in the merchant service in the United States. This gives an increased demand in addition to that which may be called for government purposes.

Again there has been started quite a large amount of new railroad work and this has given another push to the iron business. These being all additional to the ordinary run of trade makes the demand so great that the market cannot be immediately supplied. Men in business with ordinary foresight soon see prices are bound to advance and they begin to order supplies which crowds the supply still harder and the consequence is prices go up.

These advances in the prices of material has had the effect of not only increasing wages but has made a strong demand for labor. This labor has been idle for a long time and its supplies must be replenished. A demand has been created for cotton goods to such an extent that the advanced prices in this line of goods is also well sustained. The circles which the pebble makes keeps extending and soon all branches will feel the effect of the upward movement until the cry of hard times will no longer be heard in the land. The sound is in the east and in course of time will reach the Pacific Coast. In a short time now the construction of the Valley road will be under way and the distribution of large amounts of money each month will surely be felt everywhere. The Southern Pacific is disbursing more or less money in new construction.

After the 1st of July all money appropriations for the coming year will be available. Many public buildings will be commenced and money will be paid to the artisans employed thereon and this money soon passes from one to another until indebtedness is removed and then accumulation will commence.

More hopeful than anything else is an assurance of good crops and the products of the farm generally. When the farmer is successful all other branches of trade and labor also prosper. The present outlook is more cheerful than it has been for a number of years and prosperity cannot come too soon.

The California Weather and Crop Service at Sacramento, in its weekly report, says that the production of fruits of all kind will be fair. The grape yield promises to be a light one, excepting the white varieties, which will give nearly a full crop, especially so with muscats. Last week's weather was favorable to all crops for continuous hot weather is now wanted to give color and flavor, thus showing to better advantage in the market. Hops are doing quite well.

The Administration is going to make a show of preventing filibustering about Cuba. The cruisers Atlanta and Raleigh will patrol the little island and endeavor to pick up any expeditions which may fall in their way.
